HEATHER ANTON, Director

Heather G. Anton provides strategic real estate services to clients throughout the Bay Area. Ms. Anton has over ten years of experience representing and managing client relationships with Fortune 500 Companies. Since joining CM Realty, Ms. Anton has successfully established relationships with many corporations and is managing the real estates needs of several of these clients in acquiring office and retail space.

Prior to joining CM Realty, Ms. Anton was a National Account Manager for AT&T. She had nationwide responsibility for the company's relationship with Hewlett Packard, Apple Computer, Charles Schwab, and Intel. Ms. Anton was responsible for knowing the voice and data technology that would meet her client's needs, as well as pricing structure and financing options available to her clients.

CM Realty is a full service brokerage company assisting clients with their complex real estate decisions both in the San Francisco Bay Area as well as across the United States. Ms. Anton has many resources available to her – resources like CM Realty's proprietary in-house market database, sophisticated financial modeling and a team of experts that help her clients understand the markets, the economics and negotiating strategies in their transaction.

Ms. Anton was raised in Walnut Creek, CA and earned a BA degree from UC Davis. She presently lives in Walnut Creek with her husband and two children.
